There are 215 applications on file in the state department at Washington for the office of consul general at Paris. The independent papers are careful to emphasize the statement that there is no great rush for office.

The report goes that Secretary Lamar sold the interior department horses and carriage and invested the money in a bathtub, and is now ill. When democratic politicians are cheered up in that fashion, the shrug is apt to bring on prostration. It is something they are not used to.

From June 25 to July 6, there will be a national encampment of 10,000 men in Fairmount Park, Pa., "designed which has for its purpose an increase in the military spirit of the whole country," foster fraternal feelings between the sections and to instruct the National Guard in various maneuvers. This encampment may lead to the organization of a national encampment.

The wheel of fortune has not turned in favor of Perry Davis of late years, and since 1875 he has been in the poor house in Mercer county, Pennsylvania. He was the patron of the famous medicine known as Perry Davis' "Pain-Killer," out of which he made two or three fortunes, but lost all of them. He is now old, is in ill health, has no home, no family to care for him, and is fed and sheltered at public expense.

There is nothing stranger in the course of human events than some of the political changes that frequently take place in this country. For instance, twenty-six years ago, when Henry A. Wise was governor of Virginia, he hung John Brown, the republican abolitionist. Today the republicans of Virginia are talking of ex-congressman John A. Wise, son of the old governor, as their candidate for governor.

For a long-ago paper, the Boston Record, the expression of opinion "not without some significance;" Dau Vorhees dreamed that President Cleveland asked him to help himself to the earth, and forthwith awoke and proclaimed that the president had told him that not a single prominent republican is to be left in office, even as a spared monument. Senator Davis should beware of eating lobster salad on top of milk punch before composing his stalwart frame for slumber."

It was several times reported by the Canadian papers that there had been a reformation among the Indians in regard to the treatment of prisoners falling into their hands, but the facts do not corroborate that statement. The late discoveries made at Fort Pitt, show that many of the prisoners taken there were horribly tortured in the regular Indian fashion, and two priests seem to have been treated with no less barbarity than the pioneer missionaries suffered in the seventeenth century. Instinct seems to impel the average Indian to commit atrocities of the most savage sort, and neither punishment nor civilization can put a stop to it.

The New Haven News tells a good story which illustrates how the democrats are seeking office with tares. Not many days ago, says the News, the new postmaster was attending a funeral out at Evergreen cemetery. The quiet of one of the bystanders was noticed to be excessive. His sorrow took him all around that grave. He didn't stop moving, still weeping most pitiably until he found himself at the foot of the mound and just to the left of Mr. Engle's. Then he got time to say, between his sobs: "Mr. English, this is sad—very sad." Yes, it is, was the reply. "What a loss to his family, Mr. English! It is a very severe blow indeed." The ice was broken. The antislavery cause came like a shot to the astonished postmaster. "Mr. English, couldn't you—couldn't you find me a place in the postoffice when Sperg gets out—I'm a democrat, you know."

There promises to be a lively contest in the New Hampshire legislature over the election of a United States senator. The balloting will begin on the 13th of this month. Senator Blair's term expired on the 4th of March, and is a candidate for reelection. He is not a great man, but a good one, a staunch republican, a man of high personal honor, and a legislator of considerable experience. His opponent is William E. Chandler, late secretary of the navy. The republicans of New Hampshire, and the republicans party of the nation agreed to vote by electing Mr. Blair. Mr. Chandler is an able man in many respects, but without doing him any injustice, it may be said that he belongs more properly to the machine or professional class of politicians. Politics is his business, and he is not scrupulously careful as to the methods employed in securing his own advancement. The fact that he is not the best representative of the republican party and that the better and the stronger element of the party is opposed to him, are abundantly sufficient reasons for his defeat. The way to build for 1888 is not to blunder in '86 or '87.

It has been a saying for a time far beyond the memory of the living, that minister's sons are worse than other people's sons. From one generation to another this charge has gone from mouth to mouth, to the glaring injustice of ministers and their children. Recently the Troy Times began to investigate the matter, and taking it first from a curious chapter on heresy, in DeCandolle's recent history of "Science and Scientists," demonstrates the indebtedness of learning and literature, as well as of religion and virtue, to the review in the church of the Apostolic practice of clerical matrimony. It publishes a long list of distinguished scholars, historians, philosophers and poets who have been the sons of ministers, and is fully prepared to accept the Frenchmen's contention that the sons of clergymen have actually surpassed during the last 200 years in every direction the contributions of any other class of families, not excepting those that belong to the directly scientific professions. The history of the last hundred years shows that clergymen's sons have done more for science and progressive civilization than the sons of any other professional class; and the saying that they are worse than other sons is a joke that has lost all point or, and is as false as other gross charges made by reckless persons against the modern ministry.

HIS FATAL MISTAKE.

AN INDIANA OFFICER HANDS A DESPATCH, PERADO HIS PISTOL.

And a Bloody Tragedy is the instant Re-suit—Left—Dying on the Road and Alone—Horrible Conten-tents of a Box.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 3.—Particulars of the terrible tragedy at Jasper, Ind., Monday evening, have come to hand and are as follows:

Robert H. Reeves is a farmer of Dubois county, 60 years of age, and noted as a hard character, having already served a term in prison. He has two sons, John, aged 25, and George, 30, both saloonkeepers in Terre Haute, and rate as desperadoes. There has been an indictment for grand larceny in Jasper county, hanging over their heads for two years, but for some reason in attempting to arrest them made a mistake. A few days ago the sheriff of Dubois county received a warrant with orders to arrest the boys, then at their father's farm. The sheriff swore in two deputy sheriffs, John Gardner and William Cox, for this purpose. The two men found no opportunity to arrest the men until Monday, when old Reeves came to Jasper, Indiana, to visit the two sons a mile from town. The deputies, by watching the old man, found the hiding place of their victims, and arrested them. While going to the jail, old Reeves, who had been shot, said to Gardner: "That's a pretty pistol you have lot me so tight." The officer handed the pistol to Reeves, whereupon the prisoner tried to shoot him, but was prevented by Cox drawing his own revolver and telling Reeves not to attempt it. Reeves thereupon shot Cox in the wrist, causing the pistol to drop from his hand. Old Reeves then fired two more shots at Cox, one entering the thigh and the other lodging in the back, paralyzing him from the waist down.

Meanwhile, the two sons had opened fire upon Gardner, shooting four times, the first shot hitting the sheriff in the left arm, and one in the forehead between the eyes. After both men were rendered helpless, the two younger Reeves went through Gardner's pockets, snatching about $10 in money and some valuable papers. They also appropriated Gardner and Cox's revolver and their horses and escaped. The wounded officers lay suffering in intense agony until late in the evening, when they were discovered by farmers and brought to Jasper, where medical attendance was procured. Gardner lingered until early Saturday morning, when he died. Reeves was alive at 6 a.m. yesterday, but would hardly live till morning. The authorities have taken no steps leading to the apprehension of the murderers. The officers remain inactive, simply because no reward has been offered for the arrest of the Reeves. Citizens are exercised and laid in their judgment of the action of the authorities.

Ghastly Discovery in New Jersey.—Princeton Grove, N. J., June 3.—James Corrigan, a fisherman, while putting his boat in Salton creek on Saturday, ran into a large wooden box half submerged in the mud. He lowered the box a-here, and found it to contain large glass jars in which were the mangled remains of infants. The coroner was summoned and made an examination. There were four or five gallon jars. In one were the bodies of two male infants, perfectly formed, and in an advanced state of decomposition. In the second was the well preserved body of a partially developed male infant, with the skin of its body intact, passing through the spinal cord. In the third was the body of another male infant that had also been born alive. The fourth jar contained several sponges. Under the jars were the fragments of a Philadelphia morning paper, but so blurred by the water that the date was indiscernible. There were no marks on the box. The tops of the jars were covered with tissue paper, over which the caps were tightly driven down. There was no label or lettering of any kind upon either the jars or their covers.

Next Way to Spend the Summer.—WASHINGTON CITY, June 3.—Sergeant-Arms Leedom, of the house of representatives, left for his home in Ohio Tuesday night, with his wife, accompanied by Mrs. Leedom and their two sons, who planned to spend the summer where Representative Florida's seat committee of the house to investigate Indian reservations and land matters throughout the west is to meet. The members of the committee will be accompanied by their wives and proceed to the nearest point on the Union Pacific railroad to the Yellowstone park. They will visit the Sioux agency, and at Yellowstone will leave their horses for the summer and proceed overland by way of 1,200 miles through Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Nevada to the Pacific coast, thence return to their families home. The tour will likely last until October.

A Pittsburgh Man's Taking Off.

PITTSBURGH, June 3.—Shortly after 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the inmates of the Rush house were startled by a pistol shot in one of the bed-rooms. The door was forced, and on the bed, at full length lay stricken the dead body of A. B. Morrow, well-known citizen and brother of City Commissioner Morrow. A note was found at the foot of the bed reading:

"Good Lord. Another good-bye and a kiss. You have been good and kind. When you get this all will be over. Amen."

No notice for the act can be ascribed. Morrow was 25 years of age, and leaves a young wife, who is prostrated by the sad occurrence.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 3.—The president has appointed Charles H. Robinson to be collector of customs for the district of Wilmington, N. C.

The following named presidential appointments were appointed: David J. Eastburn, at Toledo, Ind.; John L. East, at Cedar Lake, Ind.; David Daniels, at Oskaloosa, Iowa; John R. Knott, at Dodge Mission, Kan.; Augustine C. Rossop, at Mayville, Ky.; John Kittle, at Stoward, Ohio; Joseph H. Henderson, at Alledo, Ill.; Justinian Maxberry, at Burlington, Ia.; Martin V. Merxfield, at East Saginaw, Mich.

"It's on Troubled Waters."

BALTIMORE, June 3.—A suit was instituted today in the circuit court by the Charles A. Vogeler Co., manufacturers of St. John's wort oil, against the Dr. Zornes Co., defendant, with fraudulent design in putting up a preparation known as Salvonian oil, has selected a bottle similar to theirs, and otherwise imitated labels, wrappers, posters, cards and advertising methods also the color and color peculiar to St. John's oil. Vogeler & Co. claim that by this means their business has been damaged. The bill prayes for injunction and an account.

The Duty of State Legislatures.

Laws in every state should regulate the sale and use of the many poisons resorted to by women in their desperation to obtain a beautiful complexion. There exists in Dr. Hunter's Iron Tone every requisite to accomplish the object without injuring health or endangering life.

Fairfield.

—Eugene Serl, youngest son of Jasper Serl, who has been very sick with the heart fever, is going strong again quite rapidly and will soon be able to do again.

James Carter and Charles Robinson shipped a carload of logs to Chicago last Thursday.

A goodly number of our citizens observed Memorial day and Clinton.

New merchants still receiving

Center.
—The recent rain storms have changed the appearance of vegetation and what one week ago seemed almost choked for rain is now looking well and more than making up for lost time. Quite a number of the large fields of corn have had to be replanted.

Road work seems to be the order of the day, and is being pushed in nearly all sections.

E. L. Farley is turning his attention to bridge building. An overseer is hard to beat.

The large wind mill the Goldsmith brothers recently erected is the property of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. They expect to use it grinding feed.

Come to the Hall square at Abel Bellows' Thursday evening. Everybody is invited. Something new for the young people.

The sociable at George Parmenter's Tuesday evening, was a real treat for all present.

The union Sunday school picnic in George Purmeyer's grove, next Saturday, will probably be worth attending.

The Lutheran German church is being pushed to completion by Wm. Blair, Wm. is a master builder and is doing a good thing for our German friends.

Tack peddlers plenty, goods cheap—turn the dogs loose.

Quite a number of the young people went fishing last week. Guess from all reports they didn't reach their destination.

Arthur Crall is quite sick with inflammation of the bowels. Dr. Borden, the attending physician says his case is not critical.

Mrs. Benedict, who has been spending the last month in Michigan, will return the present week, her daughter, Mrs. McElroy, accompanying her to home in Center.

Fred H. Fuller sold his carriage team last week for $100.

Wm. Draffel recently purchased the Norman horse, Sultan, of Bowles & Hadeler, of Janesville. He is a fine specimen of his kind.

—Bruege meeting next Saturday. A good attendance is solicited.

Indian Ford.

—Mrs. Coxhead is on the sick list.

George Scottell is visiting friends in Edgerton.

—Mrs. Wm. Cox and Mrs. D. E. Hopkins have returned from Dakota.

—Mrs. G. E. Lynde, who has been spending a week with her parents, has returned to her home in Fulton.

Last Friday evening a crowd of boys attended a social party at the residence of Mr. Davis. All report a good time.

Shopter.

In the account of the wedding which was given last week by a mistake of the printer or in copying the names of three persons were omitted. Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Menley, a beautiful water set; Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Kemmer, a silver pickle dish; A. D. Parker, Seth Thomas eight day clock. We give these names in order that the list may be given and in justice to those who by mistake were overlooked, assuring them that their presents were duly appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Sears.

—Mrs. Randall has returned to her home after visiting her daughter at Pierre, Dako, during the winter. She is now 88 years old, and without doubt there are many of her age who can travel a 1000 miles all alone.

The family of Mr. Gardner Johnson, have been sadly and suddenly silenced by the loss of father and son inside of one week. Willie, aged 19 years, died of cerebro spinal meningitis, May 22d.

Mr. Johnson had resided in this town for many years, and was respected by all who knew him. He came to the state as one of the early settlers, having with his brother settled on Heart Prairie, Walworth county, about 1845. His son was a young man of good health, and one of the most robust of the family, and was only sick about three days when death came to the relief of the sufferer. Thus of a family of four two are taken and two are left. The wife and one son, Calvin Serl, had to mourn the loss of the head of the family, also of the youngest of the family. They have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

—Decoration was observed by very appropriate exercises in the Methodist church, which were very interesting. Remarks were made by Rev. Mr. Apkin and others, and many old soldiers were present.

—Ed. Case has made a great improvement in his yard by grading up and putting in a new sidewalk. We know he has not done so much hard work for years; guess Frank had something to do with the engineering of this job.

—Mrs. Ellen Sayles, of Chicago, has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Swings.

—Thomas Holmes goes to Dakota on a short business and pleasure trip this week.

Johnstown.

—All remember the all-day meeting to be held next Sabbath, June 7th, at the Congregational church, for exercises to be under the charge of the executive committee of the Rock County Sunday School association. Services at 10:30 a.m., 2 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. A lunch will be served by the ladies at noon, in the church, for all who come from a distance. A children's meeting will be held in the afternoon to which all the children and neighboring Sabbath schools are invited. Let everybody turn out and make the occasion a memorable one in the history of Johnstown.

—A good day's work for Sunday: Joseph Fellows, and Mr. Coldo found a den of wolves yesterday, and killed four of them. The wolf were found in a house owned by Mrs. Bascom.

—Everything is lovely and growing quickly since the rain. Hoboken although small is making a rapid growth and will be ready to set generally from the 15th to the 20th of this month.

—Mrs. E. S. Geith, of Algoma, Iowa, formerly of this place is on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Veloy Wood.

—Mr. V. Wood, our town assessor, is looking sharp after those who are so fortunate as to possess enough of this world's goods as to be liable to a tax.

—Harry Fellows and Thomas Coldo, captured four young wolves on Sunday night and when they receive the bounty will have money to let.

—Good luck to all.

BRIEFS.

—Polo at the rink Thursday night, 8 o'clock, at Janesville.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening.

—The Rice murder case will continue to occupy the circuit court for another day.

—The Baptist church and congregation will hold a social at the Myers' house parlor Friday evening, June 15. Supper will be served in the dining hall, All are cordially invited.

—Mr. W. W. Zeigler, of Port Byron, Illinois, is in the city, the guest of his brother, Mr. T. J. Zeigler, of the firm of Pitcher & Zeigler. Mr. Zeigler is a traveling cigar missionary for a Chicago house.

—The young ladies guild, of Trinity church, will be glad to see all their friends on Mr. J. E. Doe's lawn, Thursday evening, June 14th, when they will be ready to serve ice cream, strawberries and cake of delicious quality.

—Messrs. Willard Coleman, Alfred Dewey and S. B. Kenyon are in Appleton this week attending the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, as the representatives of the two lodges in this city.

—Strikes throughout the iron districts in many parts of the country have caused mills to shut down, and resulted in an advance of twenty cents per hundred on iron and nails. A boom of this character, while it may be of advantage to manufacturers holding stocks, is unhealthy and far from satisfactory in its final results.

—Oscar Gower, son of Mrs. Mary Gower, of the town of Rock, died this morning. The deceased was six years and seven months old, and had been sick for some time with an attack of jaundice. The funeral will take place at the residence of Mrs. Gower to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Goldthorpe, of the First Methodist church, this city, officiating.

—The game of polo as played upon roller-skates is one of the most exciting games extant. The ball being kept on the floor and constantly in motion, interest in the game never flags. All who have seen the game once, are sure to go again and those who have yet to witness their first game will miss it if they do not see the match between Beloit and Janesville at the rink to-morrow night.

—Mr. J. G. Hayner has an exhibition at Dr. C. L. Martin's barn, on North Bluff street, one of the finest specimens of Norman horses ever seen in this city. The horse is a perfect coal black, with deep chest, flat legs, and of splendid action. Although only three years old he weighs about eighteen hundred pounds, and will undoubtedly reach the ton before his fifth year; and will be one of the finest breeding horses in the state.

—Mr. R. L. Colvin, of the Boston Bakery, has now a complete stock of the choicest family groceries to be found in the city. He is making a specialty of choice teas, coffee, chocolate, canned goods and fruits, etc., and wishes housekeepers to give him a call and inspect his large stock and prices. He will keep everything in the line of choice fancy groceries. See his advertisement in this paper.

OBITUARY.

URAH SOMERIT.

Many of the older residents of the city will be pained to learn of the death of Mr. U. Schut, which sad event occurred last night at 12 o'clock, aged 67 years. Decedent was born at Roundout, New York, afterward removed with his father to Dryden, Steuben county, same state. He was married in May, 1814, at Batte, Steuben county, to Miss Sally Tyler, a relative of President Tyler—with whom he came to Janesville in 1847. With the exception of two years which he spent in Minnesota, he resided in this city from that time to the time of his death. For many years he was engaged in the lumber business, and was a hard working industrious man, and during his long business career made many fast friends and but few enemies. His wife died in 1853. One daughter, Mrs. Emily B. Risley, now residing in New York, city survives, and was present during the last illness of her father. Many friends of the deceased in this city will deeply sympathize with her in the sad bereavement.

The funeral will be held at the house on East street, near the High school building, at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The services will be 25 cents but no charge will be made for the use of stakes or surface.

—At the regular monthly meeting of Friends Hook and Ladder company No. 1, held last evening, Foreman Wm. Kelly resigned his membership in the company. Mr. Kelly has long been one of the most active and hard working members of the department, and a most efficient and capable officer, whose resignation the company accepted with regret. Mr. Kelly's occupation compelled him to take this step and return from the company. Assistant Foreman W. E. Spicer was elected foreman and Mr. Truman Mosh, promoted to assistant foreman, both being firemen well qualified to perform the duties to the satisfaction of all.

—Messrs. Kimball & Lowell have rented the office formerly occupied by Messrs. Clark & Nelson, in the corn exchange block, and fitted it up for a gun room and stocked it with a complete line of guns and sporting goods. This branch of their business will be under the management of Mr. Fred Standard, formerly of Milton. Mr. Standard enjoys the reputation of being one of the finest gunsmiths in the northwest, he has done a large amount of work on fine guns for sporting men in all parts of the country, and his work gives universal satisfaction. Messrs. Kimball & Lowell are fortunate in securing his services.

—The state board of supervision advertise in the Madison Journal for bids to furnish 315 tons 300 small egg and 15 tons chestnut anthracite coal for the Wisconsin School for the Blind, in the coal house on the premises, Janesville. Also 3,500 tons of bituminous coal for the asylum at Oshkosh; 2,500 tons for the asylum at Mendota; 800 tons for the Deaf and Dumb school at Delavan, and 600 tons for the Industrial school at Waupaca. Bids will be received until 10 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, June 23, at the office of the board in Madison. This item is published for the especial benefit of our coal dealers.

—The friends of Mr. C. F. Resseguie, of this city, will be glad to learn that he has received another important promotion at the hands of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad company. He has been appointed superintendent of all the lines of that company in Illinois, with headquarters at Galesburg.

—New assortment of combs, tooth brushes, toilet soap and face powders, at Palmer & Stevens' drugstore.

—Ladies and Young Men, in city or home, for permanent employment; no insurance, but small distance to walk. For information, write to Mrs. P. O. Box 100, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

the appointment to take effect June 10th. Charley is one of the brightest young men that Janesville ever gave to the business world, and his rapid promotion from one of the humblest positions on the road to one of trust and responsibility shows how thoroughly well he has earned the esteem and confidence of the managers of that great railroad company.

—The Northwestern switch engine, No. 181, met with quite a mishap this morning about ten o'clock, while in service making up a train in the yards of that company. The right hand cylinder-head was blown off, and before the engine could be stopped one side was considerably crippled. Both parallel rods were broken, one of them bent into quite a curve. The cylinder-head was thrown about half a block away and scraps of iron scattered over the ground round about the freight depot. By a lucky chance no one was on the platform, the switchman having stepped off just as the accident occurred. It was a narrow escape, had he stayed on about one minute longer he would certainly have been struck by the flying pieces of the wreck.

—People who had the pleasure of visiting Lincoln park, Chicago, last Sunday noticed two new park phaetons which bore the stamp of Herman Buchholz, Janesville, Wisconsin, manufacturer. Some one asked of one of the drivers why it was that Wisconsin received the order for these elegant vehicles, which appeared for the first time last Sunday. The reply was that Mr. Buchholz' work was well and favorably known in Chicago and the park commissioners decided that the phaetons could be purchased to better advantage there than elsewhere. Janesville is fortunate in having a manufacturer of wheeled vehicles whose reputation extends beyond the limits of the Badger state. Mr. Buchholz makes a full line of buggies and carriages which are first class in quality.

—Mr. Levi Fatzinger, of the second ward, who is an expert of considerable note, yesterday received an Italian "queen" from Georgia. This fact, perhaps, is of no particular importance, but when we state the other fact, that "her royal highness" was sent from Georgia to Wisconsin by the United States mail, all for a two cent postage stamp, the usefulness of the post-office department to entomologists is forcibly illustrated.

—The horse was imprisoned in a little pine box, the face of which was covered by a wire screen, the whole not one inch wide by an inch and a half long. Mr. Fatzinger informs us that he has frequently received "queens" by mail from the "old country," and that they could thus be sent "around the world," with perfect safety, all that is required to insure safe delivery is plain directions and the required amount of "stamps."
